Mr. L. Rodgers, a highly respected citizen, was drowned Monday afternoon in the Potomac river while fishing.

Dr. Daniel H. Williams is now in full charge of the Freedman's Hospital and has begun to make reforms.

Mr. Benjamin Davis of Princeton, N. J., is in the city attending the funeral of his mother, who died last Tuesday morning.

The musical festival at the Metropolitan Church Nov. 5th promises to be a rare treat.

AN UNTRUTHFUL SUBORDI- NATE.

Mr. Editor: Not long since I saw in the morning Post a letter written by Mr. Charles R. Douglass to the Commissioners, in which he stated that Trustee L. A. Cornish had put a paper into the hands of Miss Merritt to obtain the signatures of the teachers under him in his interest, and that he thought such coercion unfair. He further stated that he had obtained his information from one of the supervising principals.
Out of justice to Mr. Cornish and for the enlightenment of Mr. Douglass, permit me to state that the statements are as false as the one who gave them birth. The paper referred to was written by one of the male teachers, and turned by him over to Miss Merritt.
The conception of such a manner of showing the high esteem in which Mr. Cornish is held by his teachers, and was unknown to him.
This paper contained a large number of names, prominent among which was the name of the supervisor in question, who was undoubtedly playing a double deal.

One Who Knows.

A LIBERAL ORGAN OFFER.

That there has been a revolution in the manufacture of Organs and Pianos is evinced by the current offer of Cornish & Co., the well known manufacturers of Washington, N. J. For the next 60 days they offer to sell an organ for $42.50, which a short time ago would have been considered a desirable bargain at $75.00. With this they offer terms of credit that are sure to meet with the approval of every fair-minded person. Cornish & Co. are the largest makers of Pianos and Organs in the world selling direct from the factory to the home. Since the conception of this great business, nearly thirty years ago, they have been fighting the method of selling instruments through agents and dealers, their plan being to give the enormous profits usually retained by the tradesman to the buyer. Their efforts to place first class instruments within the reach of all, at manufacturer's prices and the most liberal terms, deserves the highest commendation.
Every one who is contemplating the purchase of an Organ or Piano, should get the catalogue issued by this firm.
It illustrates and describes all the latest and best designs of Organs and Pianos with prices and special offers that are sure to prove profitable. They generally offer to send it free to all who write and mention the BEE.

THEY SAY.

Surprises will come.
The boys will come to grief.
You cannot always satisfy your enemies.

Your friends will tell you to go on, but they will not follow.

They will look on at the fight and laugh.

When you satisfy your enemies they will only laugh.

Laugh and grow fat is what the people say.

The True Reformers of Richmond are making a great headway.

R. C. O. Benjamin is in Providence, R. I.

Astwood will issue his valedictory October 1st.

You should look out for it.

He will leave the Democratic party.

He finds that there is nothing in it for him.

Don't be alarmed when you hear the drum beat.

Bill Murrell sent word to the Press Association that he could not come.

The genial John Mitchell, jr., could appreciate his absence.

Those who didn't attend missed the fun.

The ladies of Richmond knew how to treat the Press men.

Some people will not tell the truth.

The Post says there will be a new moon in October.

Mr. Astwood will make a change.

Fools never change, but wise men do.

In union there is strength.

We all want office, no matter what party gives it to us.

Look out for the Southern prima donna.

Disappointments will often come.

The emancipation celebration in Alexandria Monday afternoon was a great success.

The old man eloquent made a fine speech.

The old man knows how to talk and when to talk.

It was the biggest day in the Old Dominion.

Chairman Geo. W. Stewart presided with dignity. His opening speech was eloquent and logical.

If defending colored ladies against the personal tirade of the Times is defending Taylor, let it be so.

Keep the fight within bounds and the BEE will be with you.

Are not the colored ladies of the Recorder's Office as good as the white ones?

Is there any honor in associating with the white ladies of the Recorder's Office?

The editor of the Cleveland, Ohio, Gazette, H. C. Smith, is a popinjay.

When he comes this way again the BEE will tell him something.

The advice of the BEE is for him to take care of that baby.

The blind editor of the Gazette no doubt will catch on.

If he is ignorant of the fact the BEE will enlighten him.

If you have no spectacles put on a pair of eye glasses.

The offence is so hideous that a brick wall will not hide it.

If you want to deposit your money go to the Capital Savings Bank.

It is a safe deposit in which the people can confide.

The genial Bob Keys was out with two in hand on Monday.

They looked blooded and fiery.

Bob has it on the boys
His stock is a No. 1.
You can always find a friend in Bob.

Sergeant Daley should learn a lesson from Bob Keys.

He saved him at a sacrifice.

We often forget our friends.

Our friends are few when we are in trouble.

Never let a barking dog disturb you.

There was a happy time at the Negro Congressional Club on Monday night.

JEKYLE-HYDE CASE.

A New York Car Coupler and His Double Life.

New York, Sept. 24.—Frederick Bie-gelspecker, a car coupler on the elevated railroad at One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street and Third avenue, has got himself into trouble because having one wife, it is alleged, he married another last July, and since then has been leading a double life. His duplicity was discovered by wife No. 1 on Thursday, and his arrest followed.
He was arraigned before Justice Talbot, in the Eastern Police Court, Friday, and held in $3,000 bail for further examination. Biegelspecker lived with wife No. 1 at No. 1056 Stebbins avenue, and at the same time he was keeping an establishment for wife No. 2 at One Hundred and Seventy-fourth street and Bathgate avenue. He married wife No. 1 nineteen years ago in this city, and they have a daughter fourteen years old. For several months Biegelspecker has been irregular in reaching his home on Stebbins avenue, and excused himself by telling his wife that he was forced to work periodically at night. These excuses were accepted in good faith until the startling news reached her that her husband was living with another woman. In order to verify the statement Mrs. Biegelspecker followed her husband on Thursday night after he left work. He went to the house at One Hundred and Seventy-fourth street and Bathgate avenue. Mrs. Biegelspecker saw a woman greet him at the door and kiss him. This was more than she could stand and there was a rumpus. Explanations followed, and it was discovered that Biegelspecker had a second wife. Wife No. 2 was as much surprised as wife No. 1. She said that she married Biegelspecker at Bridgeport last July, and believed him to be a single man. The faithless husband, who is about forty-five years old, cried like a baby when he was arraigned, and pleaded piteously for mercy from the Court.

A FLEET CAPTURED.

The Japanese Take Three Transports of Chinese Soldiers.

Shanghai, Sept. 24.—It is rumored here that the Chinese transports Chin-tung, Hae-Ting, Hain Gu and Too-nan, while landing troops in the Yalu River, were captured by the Japanese.
Nothing definite as to the fate of those on board is known as yet. Advances have been received from Chemulpo stating that a fleet of 32 Japanese transports, conveyed by a number of warships, have arrived there. The transports had on board 7,000 soldiers, 3,000 coolies and 2,000 pack horses.
Troops are being pushed towards Seoul, upon which city it is expected an attempt will soon be made.

London, Sept. 24.—A correspondent of the Daily News at Shanghai states with reserve that Count Cassini, the Russian Minister at Peking, has been recalled and replaced by Hltrovo, who has been Minister at Tokio.

Mme. Fursch-Mahd's Funeral.

New York, Sept. 24.—Mme. Fursch-Mahd, the opera singer, died Friday night at Warrenville, Somerset County, N. J., of cancer of the stomach. Her death was not unexpected. Mme.
Fursch-Mahd was forty-seven years old, and was a native of France. Her first appearance in this country was at the Academy of Music, under Mapleson, fourteen years ago. The funeral was held at Plainfield, N. J., Saturday.

New Yorks Death Rate.

New York, Sept. 24.—President Wilson, of the Health Board, has prepared statistics showing the death rate in this city for 1894 as compared with last year. The total number of deaths during 1893 was 44,436; births, 51,528, and marriages, 15,144. The calculated total for 1894 is as follows: Deaths, 41,819; births, 56,641; marriages, 16,261, showing a large decrease in the number of deaths, with an increased population.

Desha Breckinridge Stabs.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 24.—Desha Breckinridge, son of Congressman W.
C. P. Breckinridge, stabbed J. D. Livingston and attacked Judge George B.
Kinkhead late Friday afternoon.
The fight grew out of the late Democratic primaries. Great excitement prevails here and more trouble is expected.

WILSON'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND PHOSPHATES OF LIME, SODA, IRON.

The truly wonderful effect produced by Dr. Alexander B. Wilson's Compound of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Phosphates renders it beyond doubt the most perfect preparation of its kind known to-day.
Consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, debility, washing diseases and all scrofulous humors disappear under its influence. It is almost as palatable as cream.
It can be taken with pleasure by delicate persons and children, who, after using it, become very fond of it.
It assimilates with the food, increases the flesh and builds up the nervous system, restores energy to mind and body, creates new, rich and pure blood, in fact, rejuvenates the whole system. Health, blood, nerve, brain. This preparation is far superior to all other preparations of cod-liver oil; it has many uses as its best recommendations. Be sure, as you value your health, and get the genuine. Manufactured only by Dr. ALEXANDER B. WILSON, Chemist, Boston, Mass.
